Dear Madam:

Recently I have been in touch with Mr. Weinman asking him for your address in order that I might communicate with you about the medals designed by your husband.

It was a great surprise to me to find when I came here that there were none of Mr. Warner's medals in our Collection, and recently a small sum placed in our hands for the purchase of American medals gave rise to the hope that I might be able to remedy this condition.

In speaking to Mr. Weinman about it, he said that he thought you had a complete set of these medals and that you might consider releasing a whole or a part of them for our Collection. I very much fear that our funds will hardly permit our acquiring the whole, but in any event I would be very glad to talk with you about the matter; and if you will indicate a time that will be convenient to you, I should be very happy to call upon you.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary

Dear Madam:

We have at last received from John Williams, Inc. the plaques of the Indian heads designed by your husband, and we are very much pleased with them.

We understood from Mr. Noe, before he sailed for Europe, that you were presenting the large medallion, CHIEF JOSEPH, to our Society. We appreciate your kindness and beg that you will accept our sincere thanks for this gift. Mr. Noe also informed us that the seven Indian heads are $50.00 each, and if you will kindly send us a bill for $350.00, we shall be glad to have our bank send you a cheque for that amount.

Again thanking you, I am

Very truly yours,

Curator
